

2021 Cheatham County On-Farm Tobacco Trial

Fungicide Applications on Connecticut Broadleaf Cigar Wrapper

Joey Knight Farm, Joelton, TN

- Greenspot in cured leaf has been the biggest problem with CT Broadleaf
- Associated with late frogeye leafspot infection in last 7-10 days before harvest
- Research focus on fungicides to control frogeye

- Greenspot

2021 Cheatham County On-Farm Tobacco Trial

Fungicide Applications on Connecticut Broadleaf Cigar Wrapper

Joey Knight Farm, Joelton, TN

1 No Fungicide Block 1 (R1, R2, R3) Tag 15 sticks	2 Manzate at 5 wks Quadris at 7 wks Block 1 (R1, R2, R3) Tag 15 sticks	1 No Fungicide Block 2 (R1, R2, R3) Tag 15 sticks	2 Manzate at 5 wks Quadris at 7 wks Block 2 (R1, R2, R3) Tag 15 sticks
--	--	--	--

- 3-acre field split into four $\frac{3}{4}$ acre blocks
- 2 blocks sprayed with Manzate (1.5 lb/A) and Quadris (8 oz/A) fungicides, 2 blocks not sprayed with fungicide
 - 15 sticks harvested from each block (60 sticks total: 30 sprayed + 30 unsprayed)
 - Cured in 2 different barns

2021 Cheatham County On-Farm Tobacco Trial

Fungicide Applications on Connecticut Broadleaf Cigar Wrapper

Joey Knight Farm, Joelton, TN

